COPYRIGHT DECISION TREE

Centennial employees are responsible for abiding by Canada's Copyright Act and the College's copyright policies. This decision tree will help you determine whether you can use a copyright protected work for your intended purpose.

START HERE

IS THE WORK PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT?
Copyright is automatic for original works, including freely available & online material. Material not protected by copyright includes material in the public domain*, insubstantial portions of works, data, facts or ideas.

*Find out more on the Centennial Copyright Guide.

LINK TO THE MATERIAL OR FIND A DIFFERENT SOURCE FOR THE SAME WORK WITHOUT TPM (e.g. A print version instead of downloading a PDF)

Proceed to the last step for more options.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO USE THIS MATERIAL, YOU COULD:

- provide a link to the work instead;
- ask the copyright holder for permission to use the work in this way;
- repurpose facts or data in your own way or paraphrase (with attribution in each case);
- remove the work; or
- use a different work. Contact your subject librarian for assistance seeking alternatives.
